REPORTS

COMPOSITE REPORT OF THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

To the

HOLSTON ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Meeting in

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

October 7, 1931

Man has always suffered, and death's fleet step has chased the weak and strong regardless of rank or station. But for the fact that Christ has triumphed o'er the Cross and o'er the Grave, there could be no sun to pierce the gloom that hangs over the race like a pall. But Christ has conquered. Hence, it is with a steadfast hope as well as with deep regret that we must say that Death has done its work since last we met in conference session. On October 16, 1930, after forty-three years of unusually successful pastorate and twenty-nine years of retired relationship, at the ripe age of ninety-five, Reverend George W. Coleman joined the hosts of the redeemed. Another to take his departure this year was our beloved brother, Reverend A. H. Ingle, who passed to his reward May the 17th. He had served thirty-four years in the active ministry and was continued twenty-two years in the retired relationship. Also the Reverend Thomas W. Brown has been called from labors to reward. Brother Brown has forty-three years of active service to his credit, and twenty years of retired relationship. We men who are living in these days of physical comforts owe a great debt of gratitude to these men who did the sacrificial work of pionering in spreading the Gospel and establishing our Church in the bounds of what is now the Holston Conference. We have also suffered the loss of one of the active members of our Conference in the rather sudden death of Reverend Charles L. Kirby who was kept from our conference last year by a serious injury in an automobile accident. He never recovered from that injury but joined the family of the Blest October 26, 1930. On the 6th day of November sorrow was also brought into the life of Brother Monroe Ball through the death of his devoted companion who had labored faithfully with her husband through the brief years of their companionship. Again the power of death played its part in the drama of life, when all that was mortal in the being of Mrs. W. L. Oliver was stilled. Though in this act the scroll rolled back, and the beautiful spirit of this gracious woman went Home. We would extend to the bereaved of these departed ones a hand of sincerest sympathy.

It is most difficult for five lone men, living in as many centers, located hundreds of miles apart, adequately to report the work of the conference like that of Holston, embracing, as it does, the whole of East Tennessee and Southwest Virginia. Within the confines of this territory there are one hundred forty-three pastoral charges and four hundred sixty-six appointments. During the year we have traveled thousands of miles by auto and rail, met scores of preaching appointments, and held about the usual number of quarterly conferences. Also, many other meetings of more or less importance have had our prayerful and considerate attention.

How can we, living in these scattered centers, covering such a vast territory, with enough work to keep us busy eighteen hours of every day, adequately report the results of the toils, labors and activities of one hundred forty-three men, some of whom labor quite unnoticed, in very difficult places and under the most trying circumstances, away from the fast whirling masses, and whose real record is known only to the God whom they passionately love and sacrificially serve? Tenderly, willingly, patiently and faithfully these Methodist preachers and their devoted wives sow the seeds of holy living, and hold above the wrecks of sin the flaming torch of a redeeming Lord. No mortal man is ever in position to accurately report the labors of men divinely called and trained to spread the good tidings of great joy.

The average cash salary of the Holston Conference is eleven hundred ninety-two dollars, which on the surface sounds fairly respectable for these present days of probably over-emphasized depression. But upon close analysis the actual showing does not equal the golden promise of the approximate twelve hundred dollar note. There are twenty-five men receiving less than five hundred dollars cash salary, fifty-one men receiving from five hundred to one thousand dollars cash salary, twenty-six receiving from $1,000 to $1,500 cash salary, twenty men receiving from $1,500 to $2,000 cash salary, and twenty-one men receiving $2,000 and upward cash salary. Further, there are twenty-five pastors receiving an average cash salary of $303.48, fifty-one pastors receiving an average cash salary of $765.47, twenty-six pastors receiving an average cash salary of $1,230.50, twenty pastors receiving an average of $1701.60 cash, and twenty-one pastors with an average cash salary of $2,888.57. The average cash salary of the district superintendents is twenty-eight hundred forty-seven dollars and sixty cents, a trifle less than the average cash salary of the best paid pastors.

Taken in connection with our failure to prorate our episcopal fund and conference claimants' fund this shows a tremendous inequality in the distribution of ministerial income, and constitutes a problem worthy of the best minds, effort and soul of our denomination—especially so in these days when a new emphasis is being placed upon the distribution of wealth by our leading churchmen and economists.

EVANGELISM

In recent years, throughout Protestantism, evangelism has been receiving increased attention. The church press is constantly bringing this matter to our minds. Much emphasis has been laid upon personal and educational evangelism. We recognize that within the last decade or so the pendulum has swung away from mass evangelism. To face the matter squarely we are forced to raise the question whether we have not written and talked about evangelism for in excess of our practice in this direction, especially if by evangelism we mean the work of bringing individuals to know God in Jesus Christ. However, we are glad to note that there have been aggressive evangelistic programs throughout the Conference this year as evidenced not only by the number of meetings held but more by the increase of membership. Yet, no doubt there is much room and much need for improvement in this field. We can but deplore the lack of Christian teaching and training in the home, for which there can be no substitute. Surely this is a task that challenges the efficiency, if not the existence, of the church.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Some one has recently said, if the church must keep the home religious to stabilize the family, and if family religion is necessary to vitalize the church, then there is nothing more essential within the religious horizon than genuinely Christian homes. Then if we are to have genuinely Christian homes tomorrow it means that our program of Religious Education must deal particularly with childhood and youth of today.

Under the leadership of Rev. H. G. Williamson, our program of Religious Education has moved from a quiet center to the outreaching circumferences of the Conference. The first two years of this recently launched program was spent in dealing with only a few dozen children and an occasional adult here and there. Today literally thousands of lives are being reached and enriched by Standard Training Schools, Training Classes, Conference Summer School, Christian Leadership Training Conferences, and Daily Vacation Bible Schools. Also some well established Larger Parishes, directed by efficiently trained leaders. Our Church schools and Epworth leagues have been wonderfully vitalized by this forward step in Religious Education.

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

Education, in the broadest meaning of the term, means the development of all the powers of man. In the restricted sense in which the term is ordinarily used it means the training of children, youth and adults in educational institutions. Throughout its history our church has steadfastly stood for that type of education which deals with the whole personality. And within the bounds of our Conference there are three schools of unquestioned merit serving needy fields. These institutions are, the University of Chattanooga, Tennessee Wesleyan College, and Murphy Collegiate Institute.

The University of Chattanooga is making steady and sure progress despite the economic situation. The registration for the last complete college year was 463 regular students, 177 night class students, and 186 summer session students. The present college year opened with 413 students registering the first day, an increase of thirty over the first day of last year. The sterling leadership of this institution demands the best in character, upholds Christianity in no uncertain terms and feels their work to have largely failed unless there has been a notable development in the spirit of social service, a high degree of personal integrity, and a purpose to make a contribution to the contemporary generation.

Tennessee Wesleyan College in its mission of education also moves forward with stately step. The influence of business conditions is of course felt here to some extent, but all present indications are pointing to another good year. People generally are recognizing the high quality of work done, and are glad to send their children to this institution. The enrollment last year included 299 students in the College Department, and 17 in the Preparatory Department, with an additional 114 enrolled in the Summer School. This year a new emphasis is being placed on the vocational phase of the student's life, that he may be thereby assisted in deciding upon and preparing for his life's work.

In its purpose and service Murphy Collegiate Institute has been highly appreciated by its constituency. Through past years this school has ministered to a considerable number of promising youth who could not otherwise have had the advantage of Christian education. We feel that this school has a distinctive field, and that our conference has need of just such institution. In recent years the school has been greatly handicapped for lack of funds, and the burden of administration under these conditions has almost passed the point of endurance. However, with the present program outlined by the administration and with a growing sense of responsibility on the part of the conference there is promise of a good future.

These Institutions of learning and culture are very largely our beacon-lights, and they are beyond question among the conference's best assets. And we recommend that the conference come to share more adequately the responsibility of maintaining them.

WOMEN'S WORK

The women of our Conference through their Home and Foreign Missionary societies and their Ladies' Aid societies are doing a highly commendable work. They keep active in both home and foreign work, filling up in considerable measure, the words of the Master, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." These societies are generously ministering to the physical needs of many, but greater still, they are quite often centers of spiritual power in our local churches.

MEN'S WORK

In February of this year a group of Methodist laymen and ministers, representing the "manhood movement" of our church, came into our Conference endeavoring to set forth the possibilities of the manpower of our denomination, having as their chief aim a church-wide organization that will bring men into effective service in the local churches and communities. Some "Brotherhoods" have been set up in various churches throughout the conference, with a fair measure of success for the first year, and evidence of vital possibilities in the future.

CHURCH MEMBERSHIP

While we would not over-emphasize the matter of mere numbers in church membership, yet the fact remains that unless our work results in an increase in the number of those following the lowly Nazarene we are not adequately saving individuals nor society. We must work for and expect an increase in our church membership. As indicated in a previous statement, we have noticeable gains throughout our Conference. At this writing figures are not available for the total net gain. Perhaps it would not be amiss to say at this point that the gain would doubtless be greater were we more conscientious in the matter of pruning our church rolls. It is quite easy for a pastor to place people in the non-resident and inactive column, but it is far more challenging and commendable—though more difficult, to be sure—to really be the faithful shepherd who makes unstinted effort to bring back the one sheep to the fold and fellowship of the ninety and nine.

CHURCH PROPERTY

Two churches have been built and dedicated during the conference year. One in the Chattanooga District, on the Chatata Circuit, at a cost of fifteen hundred dollars; the other in the Johnson City District, on the Parrottsville Circuit, at a cost of twelve thousand dollars. Subscriptions totaling six thousand dollars have been taken at Clinton in the Harriman District to finish the church building started there some years ago. Pastors' reports will show several thousand dollars paid on old indebtedness and improvements.

WORLD SERVICE

In the early part of this calendar year there was held in Chattanooga a Regional Conference, attended by the Bishops of the Chattanooga and Atlanta Areas, District Superintendents, and representatives of the various Boards of the Church. The purpose of this meeting was to set forth and discuss such subjects as, "The Task of Home Missions, Principals and Methods of Administration, and our Educational Program." There came out of these statements and discussions quite a store of valuable information. And as it was summed up by the committee on Promotion and Publicity, there was a feeling of the immediate need to put forth both a campaign of information and promotion so as to arouse a renewed interest in all missionary agencies. It has been very accurately said that the hardest thing for a man to do was to think, and the next hardest thing for him to do, was to get people to think. So our World Service program will go forward in proportion to our ability to think and respond to the Great Mission of Christianity and have others to do so.

RESERVE PENSION FUND

We are coming to the close of the second year in our Reserve Pension Fund campaign. It would be altogether too much to require of the commission, that they should have made as good showing this year as last. However, it is certainly gratifying to be able to report to the conference that, under the excellent leadership of our faithful executive secretary, Dr. R. L. Stapleton, the subscriptions and other forms of paper and promises, have grown steadily to the amount of approximately $140,000. This happened to be a little more than two fifths of the entire amount which we voted to raise in a five year program. And as the conference perhaps knows, the general every member canvass was abandoned at the beginning of this year, so that the secretary was compelled to work in spots only, and the progress could not possibly be as great as last year. The district superintendents wish to commend the commission for the good work which they have done. And we recommend that the conference to the last member stand by in this canvass until it is completed.

TRAINED MINISTRY

Higher standards of Ministerial Training are being emphasized in our conference than ever before. Especially in the matter of entrance and grading of work. This however, is always done in a spirit of deep appreciation and brotherly-kindness. Never-the-less the intellectual qualifications must be contended for, as well as the moral and spiritual. The Board of Ministerial Training under the chairmanship of Dr. R. A. Kilburn, is demanding strict high school graduation for Admission on Trial. And no doubt their grading of the students' work will come more nearly reaching scholastic standards than in any previous years. The Summer School of Ministerial Training at Athens suffered only a slight decrease in attendance at its last session, and this was due altogether to financial conditions. The quality of teaching was possibly above the usual, and those in attendance showed a marked studiousness over those of past years.

PREACHING

Forsythe, in his Positive Preaching and Modern Mind, says, "With its preaching, Christianity stands or falls—Preaching is the most distinctive institution in Christianity." In our dealings with the major problems of our Conference we should not forget this essential element. Next to the matter of righteous living the most frequent question on the part of the laity concerning prospective pastor is: "Can he preach?" Again we must admit that the emphasis in recent years has not been upon preaching, but there are evidences that the time for strong and authoritative preaching is at hand. The pulpit must have what has been termed a "timeless" element. It must deal with the great common needs of the human heart, not forgetting the tragedy and ruin of sin, the cost of redemption, and the power of Christ to make men and women and children all they ought to be.

Coming to the last year of the quadrennium, we wish to express our most sincere gratitude for the gracious ministry and fellowship we have enjoyed in the able and highly commendable leadership of Bishop H. Lester Smith. And we are unhesitating in our desire to have him and Mrs. Smith spared to us another four years.

Standing Committees and Boards

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE HOLSTON ANNUAL CONFERENCE

DIVISIONS OF SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES

During the past year our schools and colleges located in the Holston Conference have carried on their usual programs. The reports of the District Superintendents have mentioned the number of students in attendance. Financial conditions have remained about the same. Murphy Collegiate Institute has put its faith and hope in a new administration and your Board of Education desires to express its belief that the trustees of Murphy exercised wise judgment in placing Brother W. C. Martin at the head of their school. To Brother Martin the Board extends its heartiest good wishes and pledges its co-operation.

The last session of the Annual Conference returned to this Board for further consideration and future report that portion of its report then presented which proposed a financial program by which the Conference would help its schools. The following is offered in place of the program suggested last year. The words of a motion passed by the Board in its meeting of September 17, 1931, will be used: "That the Conference Board of Education recommend to the Annual Conference, first, that each charge take an offering at a stated time for the Educational Institutions of the Conference; second, that the Conference Board promote this offering; third, that none of the above refers to the support of Brother H. G. Williamson's program, which will remain as at present."

The Board so recommends.

Respectfully submitted,

R. A. KILBURN,

Chairman of Division of Schools and Colleges.

JAMES L. ROBB, Secretary.

THE REPORT OF THE DIVISION OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION IN THE LOCAL CHURCH OF THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION

For five years the Holston Conference Program of Religious Education has been in operation. During this period the program has developed from a few isolated efforts in the local churches, to a conference-wide movement of leadership training, including a ten-day Conference Summer; Christian Leadership Training Conferences for the developing of teachers of teachers; more than a dozen and a half of Standard Training Schools and classes; and scores of non-accredited Workers' Conferences, reaching in all, more than 1,000 Church School and Epworth League workers each year; and a Vacation Church School program of nearly 100 schools, enriching the lives of 5500 children, young people and adults. Marked improvements in our Church School buildings and equipment, teaching materials and teaching methods are some of the obvious results of this work; while throughout the conference there may be sensed a growing interest in, and on increasing response to the program of religious education as a valid method of evangelism.

It is our conviction that the conference desires the continuation of this program. But it becomes necessary for us to call to your attention some facts pertaining to the financial support of the program. During the first year, the cost of the program including the director's salary, travel and correspondence, was less than $3,000; and of this amount the local churches and church schools paid less than $500. The second year this asking was increased to $750; and while the amount paid has steadily increased each year, yet the total asking has never been paid in full. During the last four years the service to the field has been enlarged many fold; a part-time secretary to take care of the increasing volume of correspondence and publicity has become necessary; and a full time Young Peoples' Worker has been added, so that whereas the cost of the program the first year was less than $3,000, the enlarged service which the field is now receiving costs approximately $6,900, with the 450 local Church Schools paying less than $750 of this amount exclusive of the Rally Day offerings.

Furthermore the Board of Education has reduced its appropriation from $1,500 to $1,000, and will probably be compelled to make a further reduction next year. Another source of income mounting to $200 has been withdrawn entirely. It is evident, therefore, that if the program is to continue more adequate local support is necessary. The problem is not that some churches are not paying enough, but rather that many are not paying anything.

We, therefore, recommend (1) that the present asking of $750 be continued for another year, and that this amount be distributed among the Districts as follows:

Bristol $100, Chattanooga $200, Harriman $100, Johnson City $150, and Knoxville $200, and that vigorous efforts on the part of both district superintendents and pastors be made to raise the entire amount, by seeing to it that every Sunday School pays something; (2) that one Sunday in March be observed as Holston Conference Religious Education Day, and that on this day the attention of the people be called to the importance of religious training in general, and the objectives and activities of the conference program in particular, and that on this day the religious education appointments to the local church schools be raised.

We wish further to emphasize the fact that this collection should be taken in the spring, for two reasons. First, the costs of operation are heavier in the spring and summer than at any other time; and second, this collection is separate and distinct from the Rally Day offering which is a World Service obligation, and should be taken at such a time as will not interfere with the Rally Day giving.

W. C. MARTIN, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM

The history of Methodism is a record of evangelism. She was born in a revival of pentecostal power, and as long as this power abides with her, she will continue to take her place at the head of the evangelical churches in evangelizing the world. So great has been her evangelizing power, that today she encircles the globe, she has her evangelizing forces in almost every nook and corner of the world, and as she has been such a wonderful power to evangelize in the past, may God grant that she may be even a greater power to evangelize in the future.

God the Father, Son and Holy Ghost have not changed in their purpose and power to save, and redeem a lost world from sin, neither has the Gospel changed, "for it is yet the power of God unto salvation to all who will believe it". May God grant his people everywhere a greater faith in his Gospel, and its power to save.

Realizing as we do, the need, and worth of evangelism to Christ's church and the world; we therefore endorse any type of evangelism that will bring men into a right relationship with God and their fellow-man, and that will bring in the kingdom of God into the world.

W. H. RAGAN,
J. F. COLDWELL.

REPORT OF THE HOLSTON CONFERENCE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL TRAINING

Your Conference Board of Ministerial Training holds responsibility for five different educational endeavors by which our Church admits men to and ordains them for its ministry. A brief review of this work together with some suggestions concerning the plans and hopes of your Board follows:

The plan of procedure in the Traveling Preachers' Course is well known to all of you, however the advise of your board, suggests that the educational qualifications necessary for admission on trial need to be better understood. The Discipline states that the candidate must meet requirements for admission to college. By interpretation of your Bishop, the rule says the candidate must have fifteen units of high school credits, acquired in the class room of a secondary school. Training under tutors or through correspondence will not meet this requirement.

It naturally follows from the rule for admission that the work of the course is expected to be of college standard. The methods of teaching and the students preparation call for more than the reading of a book and the writing of answers to ten examination questions upon that book. The student must prepare a series of papers and employ collateral sources of information in getting a constructive grasp of the subject treated. He must show competence in handling the medium of his expression. He must manifest a degree of courage in facing what have been to him hitherto unknown ideas in the thinking of the world. Grading upon the part of the instructor has reached new levels. Brilliance as symbolized in grades of 90, 95, 98, is more rarely found, and the perfection of 100 is hardly to be obtained. In the setting of these standards your Board of Ministerial Training is not attempting to be dictatorial or harsh. It is attempting faithfully to carry out the responsibilities placed upon it by the authorities of the Church. Candidates for admission to the Conference should seriously weigh their own intellectual capabilities before seeking to enter upon the Conference course.

Local Preachers Courses.

Local preachers who are supplies are amenable to the Conference Board of Ministerial Training for instruction and examination in the Local Preachers Course. Local preachers who are not supplies are examined by their district or quarterly conferences. Brother R. C. Elzey is Chairman of the Board's committee for local preachers, and such preachers should make arrangements for their work with him. This Board invites the supply pastors of the Conference to use its services in their studies in the Local Preachers Course.

Local preachers who are candidates for orders carry on their study through correspondence with the Commission on Courses of study, 150 Fifth Avenue, New York City. Your Conference Board does not do this work, but accepts certification of its completion from the office of the Commission.

The Conference Board of Ministerial Training would not presume upon the prerogatives of others, but it respectfully recommends that those appointed Chairman of District Conference Examining Committees be members of the Annual Conference Board.

Graduate Courses.

The Commission on Conference Courses of Study, realizing that education is a process continuing through life, has made possible courses of study for those preachers who have graduated from the four year course. These graduate courses are pursued through correspondence with leading religious teachers of our denomination. A committee of this Board, with J. E. Milburn as chairman, has been appointed to promote the use of this opportunity for continued directed study. We have set a goal of a graduate class of ten for this year. Opportunity will be given at the Summer School for this class to get the personal leadership of the instructor of the course they choose for study.

Summer School.

Your Board co-operates with the Boards of four other annual conferences in an Annual Summer School of Ministerial Training. This School has held a ten day session at Tennessee Wesleyan College for the last eight years. It is a time of spiritual and intellectual refreshment. To a faculty composed of the members of the co-operating Boards are added special lectures from our leading pulpits, universities and seminaries. Hardly without exception every student who attends becomes a booster for the School. No student in the Conference Courses of Study can afford to miss the opportunities of this School. In case his judgment errs the Discipline helps him, for it states he must attend a Summer School of Ministerial Training where such exists. This rule should apply to local preachers who are supplies as well as to traveling preachers. Examinations given at the Summer School will not be given at the annual conference.

At the coming session of the Summer School a five day school for graduates will be organized. Your Board asks that each pastor consider well the ordering of his time so that he may be present and obtain the privileges offered.

The Holston Conference Board of Ministerial Training expresses its thanks for the leadership of the Commission on Courses of Study as administered under the direction of Dr. Allan MacRossie. The Board also desires to express its gratitude to Mrs. John A. Patten for her generous help so graciously given to its Summer School program.

Respectfully submitted for the Board by:

R. A. KILBURN, Chairman,
DANIEL L. JONES, Registrar.

REPORT OF HOLSTON ASSEMBLY ASSOCIATION TO THE HOLSTON CONFERENCE

Early in the year the Association appointed C. W. Sullivan and W. C. Martin and Walter Smith a committee to meet the Park Commission and to sell the original acreage held by the Association, as this land was inside of the Park area.

The sale was agreed upon on the basis that the Park pay the Association $11,000 for it and also that they aid us in securing another location which shall be satisfactory to the Association.

It was agreed with Mr. W. O. Whittle that the $1,500 held for the Conference Epworth League should be turned over to the Association as this would carry out the original purpose of the campaign for the money.

The same committee arranged for the purchase of the Trentham property of ninety acres three-fifths of a mile above Gatlinburg, on the road to LeConte. The committee holds a contract with the Park Commission, that they will turn over to us a strip of land agreed upon in exchange for a mountain side along Grassie Creek. There is about 60 acres in this tract and includes about 20 acres of the Watson Apple Orchard.

The committee holds another contract with the Park Commission that when, and if, they get the right to sell the extra land not needed they will sell 80 acres more to the Association at a reasonable price agreed upon by an appraisal committee.

This will give us all of the Watson orchards with nearly 5000 apple trees from which this year they are taking about 10,000 bushels of fine apples.

The total acreage will be over 200 acres.

The first piece of land is now in Chancery Court to be sold in November to clear the title, we have bought the notes and hope to get the title by Dec. 1st, this year.

We hope to make arrangements to hold an assembly program and the Epworth League institute next summer and to have ready camping sites.

We nominate the following trustees for three years:

J. F. Rowe, E. H. Ogle, E. O. Woodyard, W. D. Wilkinson, and W. H. Ragan.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING ADVOCATE-JOURNAL FUND

Whereas, we have listened with interest to the discussion concerning the use of the interest on the Advocate Endowment Fund toward sustaining legitimate expenses in the publication of the paper, and

Whereas, the records plainly show that the first Board of Trustees of which Dr. John A. Patten, largely instrumental in raising the fund was treasurer, and other trustees equally active in promoting the campaign for the Endowment, gave full approval by vote to the proposal of using the interest of this fund to help sustain our Advocate,

Therefore, Resolved that Holston Conference now in annual session expresses its judgment that the wisest action for the present, is to abide by the decision of the Board of Trustees as to the future disposition of accruing interest from the Advocate Endowment Fund.

RESOLUTION FOR BISHOP H. LESTER SMITH'S RETURN

Whereas, the approaching General Conference next May will fix the residences of all our Bishops for the next quadrennium,

And, since our own beloved Bishop H. Lester Smith has been here but one quadrennium,

And, since he has given such perfect and universal satisfaction; having shown himself so exceedingly brotherly to every man of us; having given himself unreservedly to all our problems;

Therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Holston Conference, do hereby most earnestly request that Bishop H. Lester Smith be returned to the Chattanooga Area for the next quadrennium; and that our delegation is hereby requested to carry this resolution up to the General Conference and present the same to the proper committee.

Signed:

WILLIAM M. DYE,
J. M. MELEAR,
G. T. FRANCISCO,
H. M. HAWK.

WORLD SERVICE COUNCIL REPORT

From the beginning Methodism has been conceived as a great missionary movement. John Wesley declared the world is our parish.

Despite some opposing movements and discouraging losses, we still believe, to quote Jno. R. Mott, that "Jesus Christ was never so unique, so efficient and so necessary as he is today."

In view of the emergency now confronting us in depleted income and waning resources, together with the cuts which these have occasioned, we recommend to the Holston Conference, for their adoption, the following items of agenda for the next Conference year:

I.

That the World Service Council of three members from each district be asked to arrange for an all-year-'round cultivation and enlistment for World Service. This implies both Conference-wide activities and organization of district and sub-district groups. We desire that this campaign of education and enlistment be carried to the charges and that each pastor use his local World Service Council in all possible ways in promoting the work in the local church.

II.

On Sunday, October 18th, each pastor is requested to make a frank statement to his congregation of the World Service situation. Sunday, October 25th, is to be observed as "Missionary Sunday" with sermon, Sunday School teaching and Epworth League meeting in keeping with the day. There should be an earnest effort to secure subscriptions from those not now giving to World Service, to collect all unpaid pledges and to send forward at least one-sixth of the year's subscription to World Service. It is also urged that as much extra money as possible from each charge, be secured to apply on the present deficit and that this money be sent without fail to Chicago by October 31st.

III.

Since prayer is an indispensable factor in all of our work, we urge as a continuing program of this campaign that the district World Service councils arrange as early in the year as practicable for a day or two of spiritual retreat.

IV.

We recommend that each district Council fix a date early in the year for a simultaneous, exclusive every member canvass for World Service under district-wide plans and leadership, neighboring pastors and laymen to be used in preparation and canvass as needed. It is desired that in every church all members be enlisted as World Service supporters in the local canvass. The local World Service Council shall lead but present emergency should be used largely to enlist new givers. It is further recommended that a separate World Service Treasurer be appointed in each church to conform with the requirements of the Discipline. Other promotional means such as the use of stereoptican lectures, charts and the dime books, which have lately proved of such fine assistance, should be used as widely as possible. It is assumed that remittances will be sent monthly to the World Service Office, 740 Rush Street, Chicago.

REPORT OF THE CHAIRMAN OF THE RESERVE PENSION COMMISSION OF HOLSTON CONFERENCE

OCTOBER 7, 1931

We beg to present the following report for the year.

It is scarcely necessary to say, because of the depression in the minds of the people, that the commission thought it unwise to proceed with the active campaign for funds which we planned and the conference authorized last fall. We came to this conclusion after a campaign was set up in each of three charges. We secured only a small part of the apportionment.

Therefore we thought it wise to wait for the detailed campaign until the first of the coming year and perhaps until the certain revival of financial conditions, but every man in the commission voted to keep in the field and as active as possible.

There is no thought of delaying the special drive a day longer than seems wise. We ask that we have the field until we have secured the total amount needed.

When and if we complete this campaign there need be no other on this cause for at least 30 years and if we enter the new plan there never need be another special drive for it will be placed on a scientific pension basis.

We are glad to report that while we have not been able to make the regularly planned campaign, we have secured some pledges, enough to report a sum of $151,183.21 of the $335,000, approximately one-half of the amount.

Dr. Farmer, in speaking to a number of conferences has used this record as an example and declared in a letter within three weeks that it is the best plan and the best progress toward the goal in the church.

The Pension Plan Adapted to Holston Conference.

Dr. Farmer writes that the 1908 pension plan is not a pension plan but an excuse for distributing some funds to retired men.

The new plan takes into consideration two distinct groups. First, the present members of conference whose total years are a liability of the conference, which liability must be provided for before any new liability can be considered, for if they are cared for it must be done now while they are with us.

The second group which must have our careful consideration will be composed of the new entrants after we have gone into the new plan.

How the Plan Will Work Out For the Present Group.

There were 145 members of conference reported for 1930. According to the statistics of this conference for twenty years 25 of the present group will die before retirement. This leaves 120 men and their years and their widows to be provided for.

The average period of active service in the Holston Conference is 23 years.

23 years at \$25 equals \$575 a year for an average period of retirement which is $8\frac{1}{2}$.

\$575 plus $8\frac{1}{2}$ equals \$4887 and for 120 men it will require \$586,000 to cover the full liability of the present membership.

The Resources For the Task.

$300,000—The reserve pension fund which, according to our original statement, is all to be expended within the lifetime of the present group with all interest accrued.

$206,250—Compound interest accruing on above fund in 35 years, the full period in which this money will be spent.

\$ 63,250—Interest at $5\frac{1}{2}\%$ on our present endowment fund of \$50,000 during the period of 23 years.

$ 25,000—From the Book Concern dividends for 23 years.

$ 20,000—From the Board of Pensions & Relief for 23 years.

$ 3,200—From bequests already made for 23 years.

$617,700—Total during this period, which takes no consideration of funds collected annually from the churches. This fund will be divided on some fair basis between the two groups.

The New Entrants Group of 120 Men who will have about the same liability as the present group.

120 men at $25 a year for a period of 23 years will need $586,400 to underwrite their liability.

Resources of the Group Under the New Plan

We will use $180,000 as the total salary figure instead of the present one of over $200,000, to make the calculation fair.

$103,500—2½% of salaries to be contributed by the members of conference, for 23 years.
 $227,700—5½% of salaries to be contributed by churches for 23 years.
 $230,000—Compound interest on funds accumulated for 23 years.
 $ 63,250—Compound interest on the endowment fund of $50,000 for 23 years.
 $ 25,000—From Book Concern for 23 years.
 $ 20,000—From the Board of Pensions.
 $ 3,200—From bequests already made.
 $672,650—Total from all sources for new entrants and so on each generation will build its own pension fund.

This is the reason we are soliciting the present funds as an active Pension Fund to be paid out to the present group with all interest accrued, the last dollar to have been paid when the last survivor is gone.

The commission recommends that we adopt the following as our policy and goal, remembering it is not a promise but a goal toward which to work:

1st—That we enter the new plan when we have raised in cash and good subscriptions $220,000.

2nd—Our aim shall be to have this amount at least by the fall of 1933.

3rd—That we work toward the following graduated plan of reaching the final minimum of $25.00 per year of service:

1933—Annuity	$14.00	per	year	of	service.
1934—Annuity	$16.00	"	"	"	"
1935—Annuity	$18.00	"	"	"	"
1936—Annuity	$20.00	"	"	"	"
1937—Annuity	$22.00	"	"	"	"
1938—Annuity	$24.00	"	"	"	"
1939—Annuity	$25.00	"	"	"	"

Bginning as early as possible to pay on the new basis will help the present group of retired men and the gradual approach to the minimum will guard the fund and give time to complete the canvass and accumulate the total fund.

This means that within 8 years from this conference we will be paying the minimum set by the Board of Pensions.

In that 8 years 23 more men and 18 more widows will have passed with a reduction of 529 years of liability of the preachers and 324 years for the women.

4th—That this report be printed as our general policy and procedure.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS TO HOLSTON ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Committee on Resolutions is of the opinion that no better place could have been found in the bounds of the Holston Conference for the 88th session than the beautiful city of Maryville, Tenn., a quiet college town, full of hospitable people, centrally located.

It is also our opinion that it would have been impossible for any group to have given the Conference a more hearty welcome, and provided more generous entertainment, than the people of the First M. E. Church of Maryville, and of the Maryville Larger Parish. The smooth, systematic and friendly way in which they have provided for our happiness and welfare while in their midst is hardly to be equalled.

We shall not soon forget the spiritual peaks of this Conference. Pictures of the promised land of the future haunt our minds. The inspiration that has come from the fellowship has gone far toward making us adequate for the future tasks. Mile posts of kingdom advance have been reviewed, and new ideals for future realization have been deeply planted in our minds.

We shall not soon forget the hospitality of the homes that have been thrown open to us in hearty welcome; the well prepared meals that have nourished our physical bodies. The pastor host, the people of the church and community have been faithful in that which is greatest and least for the comfort and happiness of all.

Therefore, be it resolved, that we express our deepest gratitude and sincere appreciation:

To Bishop H. Lester Smith, LL.D., for his inspiring devotional addresses and the brotherly way in which he has presided over all sessions of the Conference.

To Bishop Charles M. Mead for his hopeful, inspiring and challenging sermons. How great is the power of such preaching to move the hearts and minds of ministers and laymen alike.

To pastor host, the Reverend W. H. Ragan, pastor of this church, and his people; to the ministers, and Director of Religious Education, and the people of the Maryville Larger Parish and to the people of this fair city for their hearty welcome, and their generous hospitality during our stay.

To the Churches of the city for their friendly co-operation in aiding the Conference and making our stay pleasant.

To the Book Concern, for sending us such genial personalities and such a varied and useful display of books and materials.

To the Laymen of the Holston Conference, for their presence in large numbers, for their co-operation and interest in the great tasks of Kingdom building.

To Dr. Cartwright and Dr. George H. Haigh for stirring our hearts to the missionary tasks of the church. May we never lose the burning missionary passion that was in the heart of our Lord.

To Dr. C. W. Longman for his enlightening address on Christian Education. How well we realize that Christian character is our supreme objective.

To the Cabinet, Officers, and Committees, for the joyous and faithful way in which they have performed their work.

To the Boy Scouts, for their enthusiastic helpfulness, and to Mr. R. R. Kramer for his untiring labor.

Respectfully submitted:

J. E. MILBURN,
F. D. WATSON,
W. C. DANIELS.

SPECIAL RESOLUTION

We can hardly realize that this year ends the first quadrennium of the service of Bishop and Mrs. H. Lester Smith in this Area of Methodism.

Their friendship has greatly endeared them to us. Their leadership has inspired us to greater and more sacrificial labor in Kingdom building. We deeply appreciate them and assure them of our loyalty, co-operation and love. The Eighty-Eighth session of the Holston Conference expresses its deepest gratitude and sincere appreciation to them for their labor of love.

We wish to express our further pleasure concerning the presence of Mrs. Smith at this session of the Conference. We sincerely hope that they will be returned to us by the next General Conference for another four years of service.

RESOLUTIONS: PRORATING WITH THE OTHER CLAIMS THE CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS' CLAIM, AND PAYING THE CONFERENCE EXPENSE FUND.

In view of the cut in the dividends of the Methodist Book Concern this year, which goes to the support of the Conference Claimants, the same causing much suffering;

Therefore, be it resolved, that the members of this Conference pledge themselves to raise the claim of the Conference Claimants in full, and in the event of failure, will prorate with the other claims, such as the pastor's salary, District Superintendent's salary, and the Episcopal Fund, as the Discipline requires in paragraph 372.

Be it resolved further, that each member of the Conference shall see to it, that the assessment for the Conference Expenses shall be paid in full before all other claims of the Conference.

Resolved further, that a committee be appointed to carry out the provisions of these resolutions.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING WOMAN'S HOME AND FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETIES

Since the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies are doing magnificent work, and we very much appreciate reporting their work in our Conference Minutes; and, since it is very important to have the Vouchers in hand at least one week ahead of Conference, so as not to inconvenience the pastors in preparing their reports; thus avoiding an immense amount of extra work, in re-opening them to insert their reports, as we have frequently had to do by their reports coming in the last moment, causing great extra work for the pastors, we must kindly and respectfully insist upon the Treasurers sending in their reports at least one week ahead of convening of our Annual Conference.

We ask our Secretary to so notify each of the said Treasurers by letter soon after the adjournment of this session of Conference of our action.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM M. DYE.

CERTIFICATE

This is to certify that this volume is a complete record of the proceedings of the Eighty-Eighth Session of the Holston Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church and is adopted by the Conference as its official record.

27. Balance Citizens National Bank, Athens91
28. Total Disbursements and Balance as above	$16,748.08

The above does not represent the actual net receipts and disbursements as written in the Minutes due to the fact checks turned in and deposited came back and were charged against the Conference Account, then deposited a second time and failed to get through or made good. The above is exactly as deposits and disbursements were made through the Banks. During the Conference Session we gave check to T. V. Peters, for Conference Claimants for $10,036.11. $25.00 of that amount was advanced on a check which was returned. Bro. Peters refunded the amount so that his net check was for $10,011.11. $3.00 of $38.00 was made good with money order for Minutes. The above shows more than the Minutes because we wrote the dead checks out of the Minutes, but could not write them out of the Bank records of receipts and disbursements. It is possible one $35.00 check, credited in the Minutes before it failed the second time, may be made good as it is tied up in a Bank which failed before it reached the Bank on which it was drawn. If so, it is for World Service, and will be mailed to the Office, Chicago. At the last moment I have discovered $15, written in the Minutes for Conference Claimants "investments" intended for local disbursement, and I have mailed the $15.00 to T. V. Peters, Treas., instead of to G. F. Lockmiller, Treas., Preachers Aid.

WILLIAM F. PITTS, Treasurer,
Elizabethton, Tennessee.

Memoirs

MRS. JAMES MONROE BALL

Mrs. Harriett Easterly Ball was born March 10, 1900. She was married to the Rev. James Monroe Ball December 21, 1922. She professed faith in Christ at a very early age, and joined the Methodist Episcopal hurch in which she lived a consistent christian life, she worked faithfully as a minister's wife until she went to the church triumphant. Mrs. Ball was not only loved by her own people but by every one with whom she was acquainted. She received her degree as graduate nurse from the Greeneville Hospital September 22, 1922. As a nurse none were more interested in sick humanity than was she.

During her last days she was a patient at The Pine Breeze Sanatorium in Chattanooga, Tennessee. The nurses who attended her said she "was very patient and kind". She lived in hope and died in faith, going to her Heavenly reward November 6, 1930. She is survived by her husband, two children, Ellen Elizabeth, age 6 years, and James Monroe, Jr., age 4 years; father, Charles Easterly; three sisters, Mrs. J. S. Jerrell, Mrs. John Ealy and Miss Nell Easterly, all of Greene County, Tenn.; also one brother, Roy Easterly, of Charleston, W. Va.

The funeral services were conducted at Bewleys Chapel, by the Revs. J. F. Reed, R. E. Walker and I. B. Leonard. She was laid to rest in the Bewleys Chapel Cemetery beneath a mound of beautiful flowers, tokens of love and respect from her many friends.

MRS. WILLIAM L. OLIVER

Mrs. William L. Oliver, beloved wife of the Rev. W. L. Oliver, pastor of Park City Methodist Episcopal Church, Knoxville, Tenn., passed beyond earth's shadows to eternal light and life, April 12. In that land of unclouded day she is forever free from sickness, sorrow, sin, and death. Bro. Oliver has recorded many times with sadness the departure of friends and church members in the Advocate. We write for him in this hour of bitter grief these lines, and uttered them at the funeral of our dear friend.

She had not been in robust health for some time. She recently suffered a stroke of paralysis, and hope for her recovery faded away, despite all that tender love could do. We knew Mrs. Oliver—knew her in her happy school days, and on her joyful wedding day pronounced the words uniting her to her devoted husband until death should part them. We knew how she loved her home and clung to it with all the strength of a woman's heart. We knew her devotion to the church, and how she worked and prayed for its prosperity.

Her beautiful Christian life was a benediction to all who knew her. The vast congregation in Park City church today, the outpouring of love, the wilderness of beautiful flowers under which she slept, attested the high regard in which she was held. She made many warm friends in all the pastorates of her husband. She was God's good gift to him. She so lived and loved as to come to the close of her earthly life with bands playing and banners flying. She knew the true unity, the real meaning of life. She understood the purpose of youth and caught the glory of advancing years. There was no place in her heart for discontent. When the angels came for her on snowy pinions, she looked back without regret, and forward without fear. The sky had no somber colors that Sunday morning as she went to God. Contrary-wise, the view was so inspiring and inviting that she must have thanked her Christ for its rapture. Courage, cheerfulness, confidence, were the chords she continually struck, and skillfully played on them the music of life with variations of surpassing beauty.

She was strong in purpose, clear in perception, undaunted in difficulty, unwavering in faith, steadfast in duty, and rich in spiritual satisfaction. She possessed the royalty of inner happiness. She had that serenity of soul which comes from living close to God. Christ daily renewed in her heart the sense of joy and gladness, while she let the Eternal Spirit fill her life with light and love. She met all afflictions with gallant and high-hearted happiness. She believed that God draws over every weary day the restful veil of night, and enfolds His children in its calm. She knew that He sends His grace to help us bear the burdens too heavy for our weakness, while He carries in His bosom the weight of our woes, and in our disturbed slumber permits us to press our weariness close to His tender heart, while He whispers rest to our troubled souls. This God won her allegiance, elicited her love, challenged her loyalty, and made her life beautiful and bright, grand and glorious, and full of charm. He gave her a perfect patience, a just judgment, a compassionate spirit, and a triumphant faith.

The supremacy of the soul, the high mission of pain, the overruling of divine providence, the correct standard of measurement, the rich harvest afforded by experience, the fearless way in which death should be regarded—these and many other great lessons were exemplified in her beautiful character. Her faith looked far beyond the present and quite below the surface. She accepted the God of the blooming flowers, the green grass, the blue sky, and gentle zephyr, and likewise the God of the desert and the sheeted storm. The God of the great universe who wheels the planets in their orbits and swings the shining stars through silent space—this was the God she loved and trusted. Hence the uniformity and regularity and stability of her character. One stormy day Henry Ward Beecher, walking with a friend on the street, stepped from under the umbrella, stood looking up into the gloomy sky, and with the rain falling on his face, cried like a beseeching child, "O my Father in heaven, speak to me." With similar longing and in the same sweet spirit, Mrs. Oliver, we doubt not, often prayed to her heavenly Father. She believed the infinite heavens to be occupied with more than rigid laws that guide, or impersonal forces moving worlds in their courses. Ah, yes. Her faith conceived a God hovering over humanity and sympathizing with its suffering heart. In the purple dawn of that Sunday morning she lay serene in the consciousness of having striven to obey the divine Voice Who had spoken to her in childhood, in young womanhood, and in mature years, and Who, beyond caviel, she heard still speaking to her, weary and worn, saying, "It is enough; come up higher."

GEORGE W. COLEMAN

For a number of years George W. Coleman had the distinction of being the oldest member of the Holston Conference, yet it was often said by his brethren that in intellect and spirit he was one of its youngest members.

He was born in the state of Pennsylvania on Oct. 4, 1835, and at the time of his death in Martin's Ferry, Ohio, on Oct. 16, 1930, he had reached the age of 96 years and 12 days.

He joined the South Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1853 and had, at the time of his death, been a member of an Annual Conference for 73 years. He came to the South at the close of the Civil War and joined the Holston Conference in 1866, the year following its reorganization at Athens, Tenn., in 1865. Casting in his lot with the members of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1858 and had, at th time of his death, been a member, bore with them their burdens and rendered a most valuable and lasting service to the church and the Master's Kingdom during the long period of his ministerial career.

As an independent thinker Brother Coleman did not allow his advanced age to dull the keenness of his interest in the intellectual and theological problems of his day. His response to the roll call of the retired ministers was heard with interest by the ministers each year as he used the opportunity to address the conference and give advice to his younger brethren out of his mature thought and his rich and varied experience.

He attended his last conference in Johnson City, Tenn., in 1929, shortly after passing his 95th birthday and his summons from labor to reward came during the next conference which was in session in Greeneville, Tenn., when the message came from the home of his daughter, at Martin's Ferry, Ohio, telling his brethren that he had answered the final roll call and entered into the Master's joy.

Through his interest in education, through his devotion to the cause of Temperance Reform and through the use of his pen, he exerted a wide influence in connection with his labors as a pastor.

His devoted wife, sharer of his labors and his joys, was a true helpmeet to him and a strength and support in all his active ministry, living to advanced age but going before him to the church triumphant by a few years. A daughter, Mrs. R. J. Miller, and a son, Beecher Coleman, were also called to reward before the home-going of the father. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Lou Jennings, of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Grace Rogers, of Cleveland, Tenn., and Mrs. Emma Faucette, of Martin's Ferry, Ohio.

Funeral services were held at Cleveland, Tenn., in charge of his pastor, Rev. W. L. Oliver, Bishop Cooke, Dr. Melear and other ministers, and were a fitting tribute to one whose life, character and influence had made him to so many, a true Father in Israel.

MRS. J. C. HODGE

Mrs. Matilda Grigsby Hodge was born August 24, 1861; departed this life January 11, 1931. She was the widow of the late Rev. John C. Hodge, who preceded her to his reward in 1906. Mrs. Hodge had been an invalid for twenty years and for fifteen years had not walked a step. During these years her suffering had been great—beyond description; yet through it all she manifested a sweet christian spirit. Her life was a demonstration of God's bestowed grace. She was married to the Rev. John C. Hodge in 1893, he being one of Holston Conference's leading elders in the ministry. Fifty years ago this good woman gave her life to Christ and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in which she lived an active and interested member until Christ called her to the church triumphant. She leaves behind one brother, J. A. Grigsby; one sister, Mrs. Molly Headerick; a large number of relatives and a host of friends. The funeral was conducted by the writer, in Pleasant Hill Church, White Horn, Tenn., and her body was tenderly laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery, covered with a mound of beautiful flowers.

CHARLES L. KIRBY

Charles L. Kirby was born on the seventh day of July, 1875, at Oak Grove, Sevier County, Tenn. On the twenty-fourth day of December in the year 1899, he was married to Malinda Huffaker. God gave to them one son and eight daughters all of whom are living. He died at ten minutes after one o'clock on the morning of October twenty seventh, 1930, at the age of fifty-four years, three months and twenty days.

Brother Kirby was converted at the age of thirteen years and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church at Oak Grove in Sevier County, Tennessee. He was active as a leader in the Church before entering the Ministry. A great lover of music; leading the service of song wherever he went. He served in many offices in the Church, including the Superintendency of the Sunday School. He felt the urge to enter the ministry as an itinerant preacher and was admitted on trial in Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the year 1907. He was ordained Deacon by Bishop Wilson in 1909, and Elder by Bishop Anderson in 1911. He served the following charges: Rutledge, Scarborough, Oliver Springs and Oakdale, Well Springs, Vine Grove and Spring City, Lonsdale, Little River, Fair Garden, Chestnut Hill, Sevierville Circuit, Friendsville and Walland, Maryville Circuit. He was appointed to the Thorn Grove Charge from the Conference of 1930.

He was interested in every good and worthy movement, holding membership in several fraternal organizations. He was a Mason, of the Amra Grotto, the Junior Order of American Mechanics and the Odd Fellows.

His spirit of patriotism led him to offer his services to the Government for service in the Spanish-American War, was accepted and became a soldier until the close of the War.

A good friend and brother, worthy husband and father, sweet singer of the old hymns of the Church, gracious preacher of the Good Tidings of Great Joy.

His Funeral Services were held from Logans Chapel Church at Wildwood Springs near his home, the following members of Holston Conference officiating: W. C. Martin, J. M. Melear, L. B. Clark and W. H. Ragan. We laid his body to rest in Grand View Cemetery, Maryville, Tennessee.

ANTHONY H. INGLE

The Rev. Antony H. Ingle was born December 15, 1840, and died May 17, 1931. He was converted when a young man and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. He very soon felt the call to the ministry. He was admitted to the Virginia Conference on trial in 1875, and to full membership in 1877. He served the church as pastor and presiding elder until a few years ago, when he retired from active service. He began as circuit rider in southwest Virginia, traveling horseback and covering four or five counties, preaching during the week as well as Sunday. He joined the Confederate Army at the outbreak of the war, and served with Company I, 48th Virginia Regiment, during the entire war. He was first married November 22, 1869, to Mary E. Porter. To this union was born nine children. His wife died, leaving him alone with his children. He was married the second time to Mary Ellen Gobble, December 8, 1885, and to this union ten children were born. He is survived by his wife and the following children: Mrs. G. C. Cantrell, W. W. Ingle, T. P. Ingle, Mrs. Robert Sproles, G. M. Ingle, Mrs. J. V. Jones, W. A. Ingle, Mrs. C. M. Fullen, C. C. Ingle, and Miss Verna Ingle.

He helped to establish the Methodist Episcopal Church in the Southland, preaching the old-time gospel, conviction of sin and a Holy Ghost religion, establishing churches, and holding revivals. It has been said by many that this man has preached more funerals than any man that has ever lived in this country. Thousands of men and women have been saved under the influence of his ministry. Many of them have gone on before, and many of them are still living. No greater preacher has ever traveled in this country than he. His funeral was preached at his home by the writer, assisted by the Rev. A. V. Dye, after which the Masonic Fraternity, A. F. & A. M., took charge of the body and conducted a very nice Masonic service, as they laid his body to rest in the family graveyard. His work is finished on earth, but the crown is won in glory.

C. N. SADLER

The Rev. C. N. Sadler was born at LaFayette, Tenn., on August 9, 1860. At the time of his death in Chattanooga, Tenn., on June 1, 1931, he had reached the age of three score and ten years and nine months.

His wife, Mrs. Adeline Sadler, had preceded him to the heavenly reward five years ago. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. J. M. Rutherford, of Chattanooga, Tennessee, by two sons, W. H., of Jackson, Tenn., J. S. of Chattanooga, Tenn., and by one brother, P. H. Sadler, of Gamaliel, Ky.

Brother Sadler began his ministry in the Central Tennessee Conference where he served for a period of sixteen years before coming to Grant University, where he became a student of the institution in 1902.

He was transferred to the Holston Conference in 1909 and served as pastor of charges in the Knoxville and Chattanooga Districts until the time of his retirement in 1920.

Earnest as a student, devoted and sacrificial in his ministry, Brother Sadler leaves behind to those who knew and loved him the heritage of a true Christian character and a faithful preacher of the gospel.

Following is the record of his ministerial service:

SADLER, C. N.—Admitted on trial. Central Tennessee Conference, 1895; full membership, 1896; ordained Deacon by Bishop Fowler, 1897; Elder by Bishop Goodsel, 1903.

Central Tennessee: Monroe, 1895-96; Red Boiling Springs, 1897-1901; LaFayette, 1902-04; student, Grant University, 1905-07; Supply, Cleveland Circuit, 1906-07; Supply, Litton, 1908. Holston: Whitwell, 1909-10; Daisy, 1911-12; Thorn Grove, 1913; Townsend, 1914; West Maryville Circuit, 1915; New Salem, 1916-17; Cleveland Circuit, 1918-19; retired, 1920.

“Servant of God, well done. Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle fought, the victory won, enter thy Master’s joy.”

THOMAS W. BROWN

The Rev. Thomas W. Brown was crowned on Sunday afternoon, January 4, 1931, at 5:20 o’clock, after an illness of three days. He was in his ninetieth year, having given more than sixty years to the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was admitted on trial in the Holston Conference in 1868, ordained deacon by Bishop Scott in 1870, and ordained elder in 1876. He had thirty-six years of active ministry in the Blue Ridge-Atlantic and Holston Conferences. Ten years he served as district superintendent in the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference, and the remainder of his ministry was in pastorates of the Holston Conference. He retired in 1911, and had since resided in Morristown, Tenn. His eyesight began to fail him several years ago, and for the last few years had been blind. For three years he served in the Grand Army of the Republic during the Civil War, and his life had been given as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. Words uttered during his last days characterized the man, "I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth." The Christ whom he preached to others was very real and precious to him. Death to him was a transition to a glorified state, a welcome home to heaven. By God's help, we expect to meet him in "the better country", whose builder and ruler is God. He is survived by his good wife; two daughters: Mrs. Margaret Sprinkle, of Morristown, and Mrs. Lena Sorrels, Cleveland, Tenn., and three sons: Wilbur Brown, Griffin, Ga.; Major Thoburn K. Brown, West Point, N. Y., and Dr. Frank M. Brown, Knoxville. Funeral services were held at the Morristown church on the following Tuesday afternoon. The writer was assisted by two former pastors: the Revs. W. L. Oliver and R. L. Stapleton. His body was laid to rest in the Lynnhurst-Resthaven Cemetery, in Knoxville.

*Elders elected to preside in absence of bishop.

In 1844 the great division occurred, and in 1845 the Methodist Episcopal Church South, was organized. Continuous activity in Holston Conference Methodist Episcopal Church was abandoned until the close of the Civil War. In 1865 the Holston Conference was re-organized at Athens, Tenn., under Presidency of Bishop David W. Clark.

INFORMATION FOR INSTRUCTORS AND STUDENTS IN THE CONFERENCE COURSE OF STUDY

1. Mid-year examinations will be required. They will be given at the Summer School of Ministerial Training. In the schedule presented on the next page, those subjects to be given at the Summer School are marked with an asterisk (*).

2. The day preceding the opening of the Annual Conference is the time appointed for those examinations which were not given in the Summer School.

3. The students are urged to buy their books at the opening of the year, and study carefully the mid-year subjects; then after the mid-year examinations, they should complete the study of the remaining subjects immediately. The instructors are required to correspond with the students throughout the year, giving such aid and direction as will bring all the required work to early and successful conclusion. All written work must be in the hands of the instructor for the subject two weeks before the time of examination.

4. The requirements of the Discipline are to make the examinations written, and two weeks before the Annual Conference each instructor is to send his examination questions to the Chairman of the Board.

5. The chairman of each group is to submit in writing the grades of the students in his department to the registrar.

6. The Board of Ministerial Training and the students in the courses of study will meet at the place of the next Annual Conference at four o'clock in the afternoon of the day preceding the opening of the Conference, to check the records of the students and to prepare the report of the Board to the Annual Conference.
